Izložba istražuje, valorizira, rasvjetljuje i prezentira iznimno značajno poglavlje likovnosti koje je ostavilo dubok trag na cjelokupnu povijest umjetnosti istarskog poluotoka, nadilazeći regionalni, pa i nacionalni kontekst. Prvi se put sustavno prikazuje kako je Rovinj nakon Drugog svjetskog rata postao svojevrsna umjetnička kolonija odnosno donosi se pregled autora i njihovih djela iz fundusa rovinjskog muzeja. Obuhvaća oko 150 predmeta, umjetnina te bogatu dokumentarnu građu od 1946. do 2010.

The exhibition examines, evaluates, illuminates, and presents the exceptionally important chapter of art that has left a deep mark on the complete history of art of the Istrian peninsula, going beyond the regional, and even the national context. For the first time, the exhibition systematically shows how Rovinj became an artistic colony of sorts after World War II and gives an overview of the authors and their work from the Rovinj Heritage Museum collection. It encompasses 150 objects, art pieces, and abundant documentary material from 1946 to 2010.

Silvestar Kolbas zainteresirao se za ostatke tvornice Fotokemika u Samoboru te je redovito dolazio i fotografirao prostor a kasnije unutar tvornice i oformio provizorni fotostudio te u njemu snimao zatečene predmete koristeći filmove napravljene upravo u ovoj tvornici kako bi slikao njene ostatke, pri čemu se uočljivo propadanje u prizoru bilježi na vidno propalim emulzijama.

Silvestar Kolbas was interested in the remains of the Fotokomika factory in Samobor, where he went regularly to photograph the space, and later on set up a makeshift photography studio within the factory. There, he photographed objects found in the factory using film made by the factory itself, taking snapshots of what remained and showing the dilapidated space on visibly decayed emulsions.

Jubilarni, dvadeseti Cinemaniac prilika je za prisjetiti se serije izložbi koja je dva desetljeća u Puli bila mjesto susreta umjetnosti, umjetnika i publike, gradila prostor istraživanja i predstavljanja recentne hrvatske i međunarodne produkcije filmova umjetnika, umjetničkog videa, eksperimentalnoga i alternativnog filma te multimedijalnih instalacija, formirajući mjesto gdje se otkriva i artikulira baština alternativnog filma i gdje se publici predstavljaju umjetnici i radovi antologijskog značaja.

The jubilee 20th Cinemaniac is an opportunity to look back on a series of exhibitions that have been a place of meeting of art, artists, and audiences in Pula and that have developed a place to examine and present recent Croatian and international production of film, artistic videos, experimental and alternative film, and multimedia installations. It has created a place to discover and accentuate alternative film heritage and present artists and works of anthological significance.

Članovi Udruge cerebralne paralize Istarske županije uz mentorstvo voditelja likovnih radionica Martine Vojnić Ivančević i Valenta Hrvatina te uz pomoć volontera odlučili su se za izradu starih filmskih festivalskih plakata. Po uzoru na originalne plakate radili su osvrt na iste, te ih oslikali na svoj jedinstven način. Radovi će se po izradi tiskati u veličini manjeg plakata te predstaviti svim zainteresiranim posjetiteljima.

With mentorship from facilitators of art workshops Martina Vojnić Ivančević and Valent Hrvatin and volunteers, the members of the Cerebral Paralysis Association of Istria County have decided to make old film festival posters. They have recreated their own versions of the original posters and have interpreted them in their own unique way. Their renditions will be printed as smaller posters and presented to interested visitors.

U sklopu otvorenja izložbe Tošo Dabac: Barokni kadar Marije Crnobori u 19:30 u Kinu Valli prikazat će se filmovi Barok u Hrvatskoj Oktavijana Miletića (14') u 20:00 te Divina Creatura Giuseppea Patronija Griffija (118') u 21:00.
